

Clint Jones is a rising 3L JD candidate at Chapman University Dale E. Fowler School of Law where he has been an active member in the Black Law Student Association (BLSA). He currently serves as the President of Chapman's BLSA. Clint graduated from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, with a Bachelor's degree in Business Marketing.

Before law school, he enjoyed a ten-year career in business banking. As a former top-performing Banking Relationship Manager for City National Bank, Clint was responsible for business development, acquisitions, and relationship management for medium-sized business clients. As an attorney, Clint has a strong desire to utilize both his education and career experience in business and real estate law.

In his free time, Clint enjoys attending sports events, live music concerts, and dining at nice restaurants. As a California native, Clint also enjoys giving back to his community by mentoring young black men and volunteering for programs to help homeless people.
